Rob's Review

Hi Fellow Masters Squashies !

Exciting times ahead this coming weekend with the State Titles attracting a fantastic 165 entries who will battle it out for Queensland Age Champions trophies at the Gold Coast. Two Centres will be used with matches at Nerang and Carrara Squash Centres.

A great weekend is assured with some very interesting and entertaining matches being played, together with the Dinner Dance at the Southport Golf Club on Saturday evening.

Time to kick up the heels and celebrate after the day's play!

A small group of QMSA Masters travelled to Mackay to support their first QMSA tournament at Squash 52 and were pleasantly surprised to see quite a good turnout of Masters players from Mackay and surrounding areas including Gladstone players. The tournament was well conducted and is one to put on your calendar for next year.

The Daisy Hill tournament attracted a record 88 entries for their tournament in April with a bonus feature of the weekend being the reopening of the Centre by Squash legend, Geoff Hunt. Geoff stayed on and chatted with many of the Masters players and posed for some special photos.

With the sudden passing of one of our great friends and fellow QMSA member, Tim Dann, the Ingham tournament was cancelled. All who knew Tim will remember his passion and love for Squash together with his interest in sharing his love music with all he knew. I think I speak for all when I say "We will miss and remember you Tim Dann".

The Australian Masters Squash Championships in September had been in planning since late 2018 and the progress at this point has been amazing. The package of squash, entertainment and bonus gifts that has been made possible with sponsorships will be a pleasant surprise to all who join us. Entries will be open with the launch of the 2019 Australian Masters Squash Championship website at the State Titles weekend so get your entries in early.

Many thanks to the Organising Committee for their many hours of time and passion being spent to bring together what I feel will be a record event on the Gold Coast.

Cheers

..and Keep Squashing!

Players who will be participating in the 2019 AMSA Teams event

The QMSA Committee met in January 2019, where we discussed the upcoming AMSA Championships and more specifically the player's fee to participate in the Teams event. The Committee is mindful of the total funding that is required to host these Championships, and therefore, the Committee has unanimously decided not to subsidise the player entry fee for the Teams event for this year. The fee to participate in the Teams event is $70 per player, so as most QMSA players will not need to fund airfares to travel to the Gold Coast, this represents a significant saving for the player. This is a decision made for 2019 and may not reflect future AMSA Teams events.

VALE – Tim Dann

21.10.1958 – 11.3.2019

Queensland Masters Squash was upset to hear of the passing of our adopted Queensland Master, Tim Dann.

Tim passed away on 11th March 2019 at the age of 59. Tim's enthusiasm for the sport was infectious and he will be sadly missed.

We all knew him as a gentleman and a great ambassador for the sport and for his home state, New South Wales.

His Memorial Service was held in Morisset on 8th April and was attended by family and friends.

WORLD SQUASH FEDERATION RULES UPDATE

4 THE WARM-UP

4.1 At the start of a match the players go on court together to warm up the ball for a maximum of 4 minutes. After 2 minutes the players must change sides, unless they have already done so.

4.2 The players must have equal opportunities to strike the ball. A player retaining control of the ball for an unreasonable time is warming up unfairly and Rule 15 (Conduct) must be applied.

Here is a link to the rest of the rules:

Champion Women Breakfast

A few of our Masters were fortunate enough to go to the Champion Women Breakfast held recently on the Gold Coast, thanks to Helen.

Guests of Honour included Michelle Martin, Skye Nicholson (Boxing) and Jessica Schipper.

Michelle spoke about her early days on the tour where Internet Cafes were the only form of communication – she commented that she didn't think 'that' would ever catch on!!

QMSA has a new home!!

Daisy Hill Squash Centre has offered to accommodate the QMSA and given a home to our paraphernalia!!
