QMSA

Hi Fellow Masters Squashies !

As I write this, I throw my thoughts back to 40 years to when QMSA was initiated. This year is the 40th Anniversary of Masters Squash in Queensland and Committee recognises this important event for Masters Squash. More news on this as we proceed into the year.

We have moved into 2019 Masters Squash with three tournaments completed successfully and with our two major tournaments, State and Australian Masters Championships well under way with planning. If any of our members have not offered their names as volunteers for these events, please step up to assist in making these events memorable for all.

Our first tournament for 2019 was a one-day event at Acacia Ridge on 13th January which was specially designed for those Masters who are unable to commit to the two day tournaments. This year turned on another burst of January heat and 45 members sweated it out in a great day of Squash to kick start their squash year. Many stories were created to see who could come up with best way to stay cool. I think "drinking COLD Beer" was one of the favourites!

The traditional long weekend Australia Day event was the next tournament in Hervey Bay on 26th & 27th January. Once again, very warm conditions prevailed for the weekend and many cold refreshments were enjoyed among the 64 Masters players who entered. I played this one and will admit to taking a walk into the airconditioned Gym to cool down after sweating it out in my first tournament since World Masters in 2018. While the numbers were down slightly for this year's event, four Divisions of well graded teams enjoyed a great weekend with Kathy Patterson (Kats) and her team going all out to ensure all players enjoyed their experience in Hervey Bay. Thanks Kats! We also welcomed 3 new members to the QMSA.

A big turnout of Masters players enjoyed a great weekend of squash action at the Gold Coast Centre - Labrador with 84 players and 4 new members joining the QMSA ranks.

Next tournament is the President vs Patrons at Stafford Squash Centre on 9th & 10th March. Sadly, I am out of Brisbane with a Junior commitment that weekend, but you can be sure I will be putting together a good team of players to challenge the Patrons. Better get busy Murray Gaydon!

Looking forward, it is time for you to date claim our State Titles for 3-6th May on the Gold Coast. Our Tournament Director, Helen, assures me that planning is well underway for another great State Titles (though 2018 will be hard to beat). This year we have arranged another guest speaker for the Saturday night dinner dance, so a great weekend of squash camaraderie is assured.

Remember to encourage your fellow Masters players who are not yet addicted to Masters Squash to "have a go" in all of our tournaments. Be sure to impress on them that all levels are catered for and welcomed.

By the way, have you heard the news?

...the 2019 Australian Masters Squash Championships on the Gold Coast from 2-13th September 2019 is about to create record entries! That is the plan, and our amazing group of Team Leaders on the Organising Committee are well under way with planning to make this happen.

That's all for now!

Players who will be participating in the 2019 AMSA Teams event

The QMSA Committee met in January 2019, where we discussed the upcoming AMSA Championships and more specifically the player's fee to participate in the Teams event. The Committee is mindful of the total funding that is required to host these Championships, and therefore, the Committee has unanimously decided not to subsidise the player entry fee for the Teams event for this year. The fee to participate in the Teams event is $70 per player, so as most QMSA players will not need to fund airfares to travel to the Gold Coast, this represents a significant saving for the player. This is a decision made for 2019 and may not reflect future AMSA Teams events.

NATIONAL SQUASH CENTRE RECEIVES MAJOR FUNDING BOOST

Squash Australia's National Squash Centre on the Gold Coast has received a major funding boost, receiving $317,923 to complete further upgrades to the Commonwealth Games legacy facility.

Gold Coast MP Steven Ciobo announced the grant, saying that the upgrades will help attract future major events to the centre.

"This is an investment to make sure we have the best possible squash infrastructure and court facilities that we can possibly have.

"This is about an investment in the next generation of squash players coming through and making sure we continue to have great Aussie talent that can learn in some of the best facilities to make sure they can become not only national champions but hopefully world champions as well."

Squash Australia CEO Richard Vaughan said the funding will go towards the finishing touches on the Carrara facility.

"In 2018 Squash Australia invested around $400,000 in to the relocation of the Commonwealth Games squash courts from Oxenford to Carrara as part of the Squash Legacy project to create a National Squash Centre on the Gold Coast.

"There remains a number of outstanding items to be completed including flooring, cabling, seating and other items which will complete the centre.

"This will also help us cement our reputation internationally as we host five World Squash Championship events over the next four years including the World Doubles, Juniors, Masters and World Annual General Meeting.
